SUMMARY OF PARTICIPANT/CLIENT'S RIGHTS

When accessing LifeSteps' services, participants/clients have the right to:

1. receive age appropriate services;
2. be treated with dignity and respect;
3. be assured protection from the possibility of abuse, neglect, or exploitation;
4. to file a complaint with LifeSteps or the Texas Department of State Health Services;
5. When receiving individualized services, participants/clients will have the right to accept or refuse services after being notified of program goals and objectives, rules and regulations, and participant/client's rights.
6. Confidentiality - Participants/clients of LifeSteps have a right to confidentiality. Generally, staff may not talk or write to a person about the fact that a participant/client is receiving services or disclose other information about the participant/client unless one or more of the following conditions are met: a) the participant/client gives written permission to release the information; b) a court orders that the information be released; c) medical emergency; d) participant/client's file is reviewed by qualified personnel for program evaluation or audit purposes by the Texas Department of State Health Services.

In addition, federal law does not protect information about a crime committed by a participant/client either at a program or against personnel of a program or about a threat to commit such a crime, suspected child abuse or neglect from being reported under state law to appropriate state or local authorities. Violation of federal confidentiality law is a crime. Suspected violations may be reported to the appropriate authorities in accordance with federal regulations as provided for under 42 CFR Part 2, section 2.12(d)(1) and HIPPA regulations.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

It is the policy of LIFESTEPS to promote a safe environment to program participants/clients and to provide quality services.

Conduct that interferes with operations, discredits LifeSteps or results in abuse, neglect or exploitation of participants/clients will not be tolerated.

Any person with a complaint or grievance concerning any actions of LIFESTEPS, its Executive Director or staff is asked to state the complaint briefly in writing clearly identified as "Complaint" or "Grievance." In case of a complaint against the Executive Director, the complaint should be addressed to LifeSteps' Board President. Grievances against staff should be mailed to the individual involved and the Executive Director at the following address:

LifeSteps Council on Alcohol and Drugs
P.O. Box 1279 Georgetown, Texas 78627

The person with the complaint may also submit a grievance to Texas Department of State Health Services directly at any time:

Texas Department of State Health Services
P.O. Box 80529
Austin, Texas 78708-0529
1-800-832-9623

Any person wishing to file a complaint may request help writing the grievance if they are unable to read or write. They may also request pens, paper, envelopes, postage and access to a telephone for the purpose of filing their grievance. LIFESTEPS shall report all allegations of abuse, neglect, and exploitation in writing to Texas Department of State Health Services within 24 hours and submit written documentation within two working days. LIFESTEPS shall acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing within 24 hours (72 hours on weekends). The complaint shall be investigated immediately and as impartially and confidential a manner as possible, obtaining additional information as needed. LIFESTEP shall inform the person making the complaint of findings and recommendations within seven (7) calendar days. Complaints that cannot be resolved will be forwarded to Texas Department of State Health Services. LIFESTEPS staff shall not retaliate against anyone who reports a violation or cooperates with an investigation or related activity.

DWI Education Class Policy

1. Participants must NOT have had any alcoholic beverage or drug use prior to attending class.
2. Participants must attend all three sessions in the order in which they are presented. If you miss a session, you will be required to pay a reschedule fee of $55 and will be required to start the next available class from the beginning. If a second class is missed, then participant must pay full registration fee to attend the next available class.
3. A participant has not completed the program until he/she has attended all sessions and received a certificate of completion.
4. Proofread your certificate of completion; advise Instructor regarding any discrepancies at the time of receipt. A $20 fee will be charged to issue another certificate.
5. Participant must participate fully in class discussion and complete all assignments and turn them in to the instructor.
6. Be on time! Doors will be locked. You will not be admitted if you are late.
7. NO smoking or dipping in class or within 15 feet of the building is permitted.
8. Should you need to reschedule – one week’s notice is required to reschedule you without cost for the next available class. If one week’s notice is not provided regardless of reason, you will have to pay a $55 fee to reschedule.
9. You may be refunded if request is submitted in writing one week prior to class start date. Without one week’s notice, any refund is forfeited and the class can only be rescheduled. Regardless of reason, there is a $20 NON-REFUNDABLE FEE for refunds.

Disqualification Policy

1. Failure to report completely sober for each class session.
2. Any behavior not conducive to the orderly operation of the course.
3. Failure to participate fully in class.

I have read and will abide by the class policy as set forth above
